

Words of Wisdom from New Zealand's Maori People

New Zealand Witnessed the first Dawn of the New Millennium and the Elders of the Maori people greeted the Sun through ceremony and prayer.

THE PERFECTION OF THE TWELFTH HEAVEN, THE TWELFTH PLANE

Dear Sisters and Brothers across our beloved Earth Mother, Papatuanuku (the Mother on whom stands the rainbowbridge).

May I send special heartfelt greetings to you all, not only once, not only twice, but thrice, from Hawaiiki Tautau, the ancient name of the country now known as New Zealand.

May I acknowledge and pay tribute to you, your absolute uniqueness, your sacredness, your ancestors, your kinship ties to me, for we are indeed linked to the oneness of all things, the great source of life.

Let us celebrate who we are. We are awesome, delightful beings.

May I invite you to visit this sacred land and make it a part of your sacred journey, if you have not already experienced the magic of doing so.

We have mountains, lakes, rivers, hot pools, glaciers, evergreen forests, beaches, and even a small desert, within 1000 miles, which is the length of Hawaiiki - Tautau, New Zealand. This must surely be the 'greatest retreat' in the world.

Hawaiiki-o-tuawhakarere was the largest continent in the world, covering the whole of the Pacific basin including Australia, over 12,000 years ago, before the breakdown of gas chambers caused immense flooding, covering most of this ancient land.

One part of the ancient continent that is still above water was named by the European, New Zealand. However the ancient name that is know by the Maori, the Indigenous People (the N.Z. Maori are descended from the ancient people, and those ancestors who sailed across the 'homeland' over a thousand years ago) is Hawaiiki Tautau. TauTau means "pulse".

The energies that pulsate from this sacred land continue to help heal right across all universes, all galaxies.

Words of Wisdom from New Zealand's Maori People

Aroha

We tune in with all parts of the Mother and her children.

Our connecting energy is "aroha", which means:

ARO = presence

HA = breath

...of the Godhead, unconditional love.

Aroha, is the greatest and the most powerful of all energies. It is the source of life. It is the essence of the heart. It is you, it is me, it is the lifeline of everything that exists. It is the greatest 'healer' of all that needs healing.

During the last century the Maori people were known as New Zealanders by the world community. Today our people are known as the Maori people of New Zealand, a name given by European Settlers.

Maori

One of the ordinary meanings of Maori is 'natural, common'.

A name that the European decided appropriate for the Maori, because they wanted to identify as 'the only New Zealanders'.

Little did they realize that the sacred meaning of Maori, is 'the Divine presence of the Mother, Child, and Father'.

The following vibrations can perhaps help clarify what I am trying to share:

Left side – Center – Right Side
Divine Mother – Divine Child – Divine Father

Divine Mother Divine Child Divine Father

(Look at this word as a mirror)

The vibration of the Divine Mother is A pronounced 'ah'

The vibration of the Divine Child is I pronounced 'ee', the vibration of the Divine Father is O pronounced 'or'.

A well known Maori greeting is Kia Ora.

The sacred meaning of the word, however, is:

K (subtle vibration for healing)

I (vibration of the child)

A (vibration of the mother)

O (vibration of the father)

From RA (the central sun, the divine spark)

Two thirds of our communication, is completely abstract. Up until recently, only ordinary meaning was shared, and not sacred meaning, so that only the Tohuna from the higher schools of learning knew how to lead, follow and protect the ancient path.
